THOUSANDS of dollars worth of the season's best and most attractive suits, coats, dresses, skirts, millinery and many other articles from our stock will be thrown on the market to be slaughtered regardless of price for we are compelled to remodel the store and the only way to do this is to make room for the workmen. The whole south end of the store must come out—but first all of the excellent merchandise in our ladies' ready-to-wear department must be sacrificed to make room for the work. We can assure you, and without fear of contradiction, that the MOLLRING stock is one of the best and largest in the city or in the western part of the state. Nothing but the very best that money and experience can buy is ever permitted in this store, and when we place such a mammoth and magnificent stock of the very latest merchandise on special sale—to be bought at your own prices—we mean just what we say. It is not the policy of the MOLLRING store to put on a so-called sale every other week or two, but when we
